FEEDBACK BY PARTICIPANTS:

Mrs. R.Anusha, Department of Pharmaceutics express that it was great opportunity to expand personal as well as professional skills. She was inspired by the informative session.

Mr. Karthik, Department of Computer Sciences express that the interactive activities helped us better understand the concepts and apply them to our work.

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAM:

The Programme was very interactive that most of the faculty will be benefited by the good practices and additional competencies that are needed to develop interpersonal skills. Every faculty must have capability to counsel students regarding academic and non-academic activities. A qualified and competent faculty enhances depth and insights of teaching, research and consulting. Program build the capacity and competencies of the faculty members in the learning system.
