Report on - World Against Child Labour Day – 12.06.23

World against child labour day, aims to inspire a global movement against child labour.

The theme for the year is “ social justice for All. End child labour. It highlights the connection between social justice and the eradication of child labour. We therefore consider the 2023 World Day Against Child Labour to be a moment for all of us who are committed to ending child labour to demonstrate that change can be achieved when will and determination come together and provide a momentum for efforts to be accelerated in a situation of great urgency. Reinvigorated international action to achieve social justice, particularly under the envisaged Global Coalition for Social Justice, with child labour elimination as one of its important elements.

This World Day Against Child Labour, June 12, 2023. In this connection we have conducted two competitions for students like Painting and Elocution.

So herewith we are attaching few photographs of above programme
